

Project Scope & Commercial

Prepared for: Diamond Polymer Industries LLP | Date: 29 June 2026

1. Project Objective

To deliver AI-powered promotional product videos and static creatives for jewellery, watches, pendants, earrings, fashion accessories, and similar D2C brands. This engagement enables Diamond Polymer Industries LLP to offer scalable AI-generated marketing creatives as a value-added service to its customers through a white-label partnership with CTRUH.

2. Scope of Work

Ctruh will deliver the following:

- AI-generated promotional product videos using client-supplied product images.
- High-quality static promotional creatives optimized for social media, marketplaces, and digital advertising.
- AI-assisted motion graphics, visual enhancements, transitions, camera movements, lighting effects, and premium product presentation.
- Creative direction based on supplied references and brand guidelines.
- Delivery of final videos in MP4 format and static creatives in JPG/PNG formats.
- Final source deliverables through secure cloud sharing.

3. Timeline
